Please save the date for a Post-acute Care Procedures Simulation Course presented by Northwestern Medicine Internal Medicine and Geriatrics. Post-acute care providers are responsible for complex patients in a variety of settings including rehabilitation centers, skilled nursing facilities, ambulatory care facilities and the patient’s home. Often these patients have multi-morbidity and need procedures that require hospital or emergency department visits. Increasing post-acute care providers’ ability to perform these procedures can help avoid unnecessary and burdensome transitions of care, and even re-hospitalization, while improving patient comfort and satisfaction.

Course directors
Sara M. Bradley, MD, FACP
Lee A. Lindquist, MD, MPH
Jeffrey H. Barsuk, MD

Learning objectives
At the conclusion of this activity, participants will be able to:
Demonstrate joint aspiration and injection
Complete a tracheostomy tube exchange
Demonstrate a gastrostomy tube removal and replacement
Practice proper suturing technique

Target audience
The continuing medical education program is designed to meet the educational needs of physicians, nurse practitioners and physician assistants in family medicine, general medicine, geriatric medicine, hospital medicine, internal medicine, physical medicine and rehabilitation, palliative medicine and hospice.
