Northwestern Medicine

REGISTER TODAY! cme.northwestern.edu
A Heart Team is now a standard treatment approach for complex cardiovascular patients. The Heart Team consists of cardiologists, cardiac surgeons, nurses and other health care specialists. This includes regular meetings to make consensus treatment recommendations for conditions including obstructive coronary artery disease and valvular heart conditions. This meeting will provide expert lectures and case presentations geared toward health care professionals who may be part of a Heart Team. Also will provide the latest innovations as well as standard treatments, including transcatheter valvular heart therapies and coronary revascularization strategies.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES
After this activity, participants will be able to:

1. Describe the concept of the Heart Team, including the key components and functionality
2. List transcatheter options to address heart valve pathology including aortic, mitral, tricuspid and pulmonic stenosis and regurgitation
3. Describe the latest interventional techniques and therapies for structural heart disease and congenital heart disease
4. Apply various diagnostic technologies including echocardiography, CT, and CMR to guide management of valvular heart disease
5. Discuss the various tools to assist a patient in cardiogenic shock
6. Describe available and emerging technologies to manage the left atrial appendage and how it can mitigate stroke
7. Summarize the latest developments in coronary revascularization
8. Describe various techniques to treat complex pathology such as left main, bifurcation disease, and calcified lesions with surgical and catheter based therapies
9. List the latest recommendations for management of CTOs to optimize procedural success while minimizing complications
10. Review the variety of percutaneous ventricular support devices and clinical scenarios best suited for each device
11. Summarize lessons learned from case presentations
12. Discuss the treatment differences and the variation in clinical outcomes in special patient populations
13. Discuss the multidisciplinary care of the pregnant patients with acquired or congenital heart disease

TARGET AUDIENCE
This CME program has been designed to meet the educational needs of Cardiologists, Internists, Physician Assistants, Vascular Surgeons, Electro Physiologists, Physicians, Physician Assistants, Nurse Practitioners, Residents and Nurses and any other health care professionals who participate in the care of atrial tribulation.

VIRTUAL FORMAT
A website link for the entire series will be sent out to registered participants three days prior to the first session.

ACCREDITATION STATEMENT
The Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

CREDIT DESIGNATION STATEMENT
The Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 12.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

ABIM MOC RECOGNITION STATEMENT
Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 12.5 MOC points and patient safety MOC credit in the American Board of Internal Medicine’s (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOC points equivalent to the amount of CME credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider’s responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

OTHER CREDITS
The American Academy of Nurse Practitioners and the American Nurses Credentialing Center accept AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ from organizations accredited by the ACCME.

SPECIAL NEEDS
The Feinberg School of Medicine fully intends to comply with the legal requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act. If any participant of this conference needs accommodation please indicate those needs on the registration form or submit written requests to the Office of CME at least one month prior to the conference date.
